

CMDFW Gita Chanting Competition: General Guidelines & Judging Criteria

1. Participants must plan to arrive at Chinmaya Mission D/FW Saaket 30 minutes prior to the start of the competition to allow time for check-in, name-tags, participation order, etc.
2. REMINDERS to Parents:
  - Cell phones OFF
  - NO Photography during chanting
  - Unobtrusive Videotaping OK ( respect privacy )
  - NO entry/exit while any participant is chanting
  - NO prompting by anyone other than judges, lest automatic disqualification of the participant
3. Panel leader will call the names of the participants in the order determined by lottery, i.e., not in alphabetical order of last name.
4. Participants may elect to sit or stand during their presentation: no penalty for either choice.
5. It is expected that participants begin and end their chanting with the appropriate *Shlokas; it is an integral part of their presentation. For example,
  1. Beginning shloka : Om shree paramaatmane namah, atha .....
  2. Ending shloka: Om tatsaditi sreemad bhagavadgeetasu...Om shaantih shaantih shaantihi.
6. Each participant is expected to correctly chant the selected Shlokas from the selected Chapter of the Bhagavad Gita, for which he/she may earn a maximum total of 100 points based on the criteria described below:
  - i. Memory: fluency, number of times prompting required
  - ii. Pronunciation: clarity and correctness of the syllables; pausing at the right place (appropriate sandhi-viccheda)
  - iii. Presentation: posture, attitude, mannerism, confidence, clarity, pace, etc.
7. Tune: Many participants will probably chant in the tune of Swami Brahmanandaji's audiotape/CD, but anyone chanting in a different tune will not be penalized, as long as their tune is consistent throughout their chanting.
8. Judges' decision is final.
